[00:13:40] The house will come to order, head page. The house is now in session. All persons not entitled to privileges of the floor, please retire to the gallery. The memos will rise and be led in prayer by Reverend Eun-Yu Ryu, senior pastor, Korean Central Presbyterian Church, Centerville.

[00:14:02] And remain standing for the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, which will be led by the delegate from Alexandria, Delegate Herring. Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth, as this assembly gathers to begin its work today, We come before you with gratitude for the privilege of serving the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

[00:14:24] Grant wisdom, humility, and integrity to every delegate in this chamber. Give them clarity to be in mind as they deliberate, compassion for those they represent, and courage to pursue what is right and just. We also bring before you the conflicts of the world. May humanity learn to love one another and grant us a world of peace.

[00:14:47] May we remember that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and the most beautiful way to live. As scripture reminds us, bless this nation whose God is the Lord. Bless the people of Virginia. May our children grow with hope, our young people with vision, and our elders with dignity.

[00:15:06] Through the work of these delegates, may our communities flourish in peace and joy. We pray in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

[00:15:33] as he started this morning. You, you? I always say that.

[00:15:48] Members will answer the roll call by indicating their presence on the electronic voting board.

[00:16:03] Clerk will close the roll. Mr. Speaker, a quorum is present. Suiting to House Rule 3, have it examined and approved the Journal of the House of Delegates for March 4th, 2026. Motions and resolutions under Rule 39 pursuant to the provisions of Rule 40 are now in order. Does the clerk have any announcements or communications? No communications, just an announcement.

[00:16:20] The Speaker appoints on behalf of the House of Committee of Conference for Senate Bill 161. Delegates Henson, Ward, and McLaughlin for Senate Bill 161. Delegate Henson, Ward, and McLaughlin for Senate Bill 398.

[00:16:37] Speaker appoints Delegates Tran, Sullivan, and O'Quinn on behalf of the House as conferees. Senate Bill 398, Delegates Tran, Sullivan, and O'Quinn, and that is companion legislation to House Bill 1007. And then finally, Senate Bill 493, the Speaker appoints Delegates Reeser, Fagans, and McLaughlin.

[00:16:58] SB 493, House Comferees, we Delegates Reeser, Fagans, and McLaughlin, and that is companion legislation to House Bill 1022. Those conference committees on members' webpages, I think, have been missing, and so we're working to have that up there so you can all check that to make sure you're not missing any of the, conference committees that you're on. With that, pursuant to House Rule 40, the speaker requests that you use press-speed button for the agenda items listed for reference up on the voting board.

[00:17:29] Delegate from Fairfax, Delegate Helmer. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise for the purpose of an introduction. Delegate has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today, I'm honored to introduce Senior Pastor Yong-Yul David Ryu of the Korean Central Presbyterian Church, who provided a wonderful invocation for us this morning. Pastor Ryu serves at KCPC in Centerville, founded in In 1973, by 20 pioneering Korean-American families, the church has grown into one of the largest Korean-American congregations in the United States, with several thousand weekly attendees, as I can attest to myself from having gone to services many times.

[00:18:04] Their mission is training the saints to transform the world, emphasizing spiritual formation, discipleship, and community outreach. As part of this commitment, KCPC is investing $7 million developing Blessing Park, a community space in Centerville designed to serve the broader Northern Virginia region by providing welcoming place for recreation fellowship and restoration pastor ryu and the congregation of kpc kcpc are active in community engagement focusing on promoting education cultural understanding and service programs pastor ryu has served as the case at the kcpc since 2013. in his leadership he oversees the pastoral team and ministries and guides the church's mission and outreach

[00:18:43] pastor ryu has been generous with his time providing invocations for events from community civic events to the halls of Congress. It is an honor to have such a great representative from the 10th District with such a strong commitment to faith, unity, and service in the wider community here in the House of Delegates, and I ask the body to give Pastor Ryu a warm house welcome.

[00:19:00] Thank you for blessing us with the prayer this morning, and welcome to the Capitol, Pastor Ryu. Delegate from Winchester, Delegate Wiley. Mr. Speaker, I rise for motion. The Delegate has the floor. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House take up out of order H.R. 74, found on page 12 of today's calendar. Clerk will report a resolution. House resolution 74, commending the James Wood High School girls volleyball team. The delegate has the floor. Mr. Speaker, I move the adoption

[00:19:39] resolution and I request to speak to the motion. The delegate has the floor. It's always an honor to rise in the chamber and acknowledge greatness. Many of us know the pride and admiration of hosting a state championship team, but today, Mr. Speaker, we have not two, not three times, but a four-time consecutive Virginia High School League class four state champion girls volleyball team here from James Wood High School. And I ask them to please stand. This past November, these remarkable

[00:20:14] young women secured their fourth straight title, an extraordinary accomplishment and a first of its kind for any team sport in Frederick County. Over the past four seasons, they have compiled an outstanding 108 wins to eight losses record, a testament to their discipline, resilience and commitment to excellence. This season was met with an additional challenges and the team navigated injuries and unexpected hurdles but they persevered and fought hard to each for each win this success does not happen by accident it reflects the already excuse me the steady leadership and dedication of the coaching staff whose mentorship has shaped not only exceptional

[00:20:51] athletes but strong young leaders of character led by head coach adrian patrick and assisted by brandy corbin and rachel brown this dynamic team produced tremendous results but beyond the championships and the record books this volleyball team represents something even greater teamwork leadership and the kind of character that makes a community proud. They have inspired their classmates, honored their school, and brought tremendous pride to Frederick County and the Commonwealth of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I ask that we join together in recognizing these outstanding student-athletes and congratulating them on a truly historic achievement. Thank you. Delegate from

[00:21:25] Winchester, Delegate Wiley, moves at the House of Dawn, House Resolution 74, commending the James Wood High School Girls Volleyball Team. All those in favor say aye. Aye. Those opposed, no. The resolution is adopted. Congratulations. The delegate from Prince William, Delegate Martinato.

[00:21:55] Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise for a motion. The delegate has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House suspend the special and continuing joint order relating to judicial elections until Tuesday, March 10th, 2026 at the conclusion of the morning hour pursuant to rule 13 of HJR 29 and speaking to that motion. The delegate has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, we are almost there. We just need a little bit of extra time to wrap up our interviews and conversations for our judges and we believe we will be ready by March 10th. Thank you Mr. Speaker. The delegate from Prince William, Delegate Maldonado moves at

[00:22:31] the House to suspend the special and continuing joint resolution related to judicial elections until Wednesday, Tuesday, March 10th, 2026 at the conclusion of the morning hour pursuant to Rule 13 of House Joint Resolution 29. All those in favor say aye. All those opposed no. The motion is agreed to. The delegate from Prince William will inform the Senate of the action taken by the House and request his concurrence.

[00:22:54] Delegate from Richmond County, Delegate Kent. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise for the purpose of the introduction. Delegate has the floor. Thank you. Colleagues, as you know, March is celebrated as Women's History Month, but particularly March 5th is set out as National Women's College and University Day, not to mention it's a couple birthdays.

[00:23:18] But it's my distinct pleasure, along with the delegate from Bedford beside me, who represents Amherst to welcome two leaders of one of Virginia's very distinctive women's colleges that are here in the gallery. I'd ask them to please stand. Ms. Mary Pope Hudson became the president of Sweetbriar College in 2023 after serving as vice president of alumni relations and development for eight years during a season when the institution was faced with many challenges including potential closure.

[00:23:51] Mary Pope led the efforts to raise sufficient support to keep the doors opened through tenacity, grit, and her very significant Rolodex. She is the first of Sweetbriar's graduates to serve as the college president. This year, the college is celebrating the 125th anniversary of its founding, and we recognized that earlier in session with HR 90. Also in the gallery is Sally Kitchen of Virginia Beach, the current president who has chaired the college 125th anniversary planning committee. Sweetbriar has faced challenges and with that has been willing to innovate. Sweet Briar is one of only two colleges in the entire nation to offer an

[00:24:29] accredited engineering and applied science program and has been established for the center of human and environmental sustainability where students learn agricultural and food system sustainability. When dining out in Lynchburg, you may very well encounter produce grown on campus by students.

[00:24:48] I would ask that you join me in celebrating Women, Colleges, and Universities Day, the 125th anniversary of Sweet Briar, by giving them a warm house welcome. Welcome. Welcome to the Capitol today. The Delegate from Alexandria, Delegate Herring.

[00:25:15] Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for an introduction. The Delegate has the floor. Thank you. Today, Mr. Speaker, we are joined in the gallery by the members of George Mason University Student Government Association, led by their university president, Dr. Gregory Washington, if they could stand.

[00:25:34] There are nearly 100 Mason students here in Richmond today for Mason lobbies. In 2025, Mason celebrated its largest graduating class with over 10,000 degrees conferred.

[00:25:49] With over 40,000 students, Mason's proud to be the largest and most diverse public university in Virginia. Mason strives for inclusivity and accessibility. Those efforts were recently recognized by U.S. News and Wall Street Journal and the Washington Monthly, all citing Mason as number one in social mobility among Virginia public universities.

[00:26:12] As a Mason alum, and on behalf of Delegates Weber and Delegate Wiley, I ask that we all give them a warm house welcome. Welcome.

[00:26:31] Welcome to the Capitol today. Delegate from Hanover, Delegate Fowler. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for a very quick announcement. The delegate has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have heard from the Virginia Wool Memorial Day, and they tasked me with the job of circulating several of their sign-up sheets for commending the veterans of Operation Desert Shield and Desert Storm.

[00:27:06] So I'd like to get those back at the end of the session. So anyway, thank you, Mr. Speaker. Delegate from Chesterfield, Delegate Gartner. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for an announcement. The delegate has the floor.

[00:27:23] Today, it is my seatmate's birthday, Delegate O'Quinn. I have been fortunate to sit beside him, even though he tries to distract me every day. I would ask that the members wish him a happy birthday.

[00:27:45] Ms. Speaker. The delegate from Washington County, Delegate O'Quinn. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think I also rise for an announcement. The delegate has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

[00:28:02] I appreciate my seatmate. um also i know someone on your side i'm sure has a really glowing announcement made for your birthday also um so yeah we do get to share a birthday and i did notice a lot of people on your side dressed like you today to honor you i noticed also we didn't have anybody on this side that bothered to do the same thing for me and i know that we also had a really cool surprise birthday party for you this morning. We don't have one of those for me either. But in the end, Mr. Speaker,

[00:28:40] I end up being the big birthday winner. Would you like to know why? Why? Because I'm a lot younger than you and always will be. Sergeant at Arms, Capitol Police. The delegate from James City County, Delegate Anderson. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise for a motion. The delegate has

[00:29:17] the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I move that the House take up out of order House Resolution 161 on page 13 of today's calendar. Clerk report a resolution. House of Resolution 161, commending John Spiak. Delegate from James City County. Mr. Speaker, I move adoption of the resolution and request to speak to the motion. The delegate has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. John Spiak has joined us in the gallery today, and I ask that he please stand for recognition. Over 14 years ago, John began his tenure at New Kent High School as a science teacher. During that time, he served as the coach of the boys and girls indoor and outdoor track and field teams and

[00:29:54] cross-country teams, and he later took the role of athletic director. In both the 2021 to 2022 and 2024 and 2025 school years, John was elected by his fellow regional high school athletic directors as the Virginia High School League Region 3A Athletic Director of the Year.

[00:30:14] This year, he has been selected as the Virginia Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association's Class III and IV Athletic Administrator of the Year. It is not only John's accolades on the field that make him worthy of this award, but also his endless support of his students, his hardworking nature, and his ability to motivate his athletes that have earned him the title of Athletic Administrator of the Year once again.

[00:30:41] With that, I move the motion. The delegate from James City County moves that we adopt House Resolution 161, commending and John Spiak. All those in favor say aye. All those opposed, no. The motion is agreed to. Congratulations, sir. The delegate from Montgomery County, Delegate Franklin. Mr. Speaker, I rise for an introduction. Delegate has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today in the gallery, we are

[00:31:15] joined by members of the Central Appalachian Cherokee Tribe. I ask that they rise. Mr. Speaker, 250 years ago, almost exactly to this day, the Cherokee of Virginia were forcibly removed due to the Cherokee Wars in 1776. That meant the Central Appalachian Cherokee would no longer be recognized in Virginia, and it's been that way for 250 years. The Cherokee were forced out and sought refuge in the Appalachian Mountains, and that's where the tribe's history intersects with my family and with so many other families across southwest Virginia. It was tough living. Resources were scarce, and they

[00:31:52] didn't even have blankets to keep warm. But the Cherokee were resilient, and survivors eventually assimilated, joining into a new way of life that emerged in the region. Today, the Central Appalachian Cherokee Tribe, a 501c3 community-based educational tribe, is handing out blankets to people in need with their program, the Blankets Mission. Through this mission, police officers, EMTs, and first responders are carrying blankets donated by these tribes all across Appalachia, so folks displaced, whether through flood, fire, or children in need, have a source of warmth and comfort. For the Cherokee, blankets are a symbol of protection, warmth, honor, and unity. We're

[00:32:32] grateful they continue to share these values of this program, and we're honored that they have joined us today, almost 250 years later, in the same house that removed them forcibly from recognition. I hope you will join me in giving them a warm house welcome. Welcome. Welcome to the Capitol today. Delegate from Suffolk, Delegate Clark. Mr. Speaker, I rise for a motion. Delegate has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I move that the house take up out of order H.R. 267 on page 53

[00:33:09] of today's calendar. Clerk will report a resolution. House resolution 267 commending the Franklin High School Boys basketball team. Delegate from Suffolk, you have the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I move adoption of the resolution and I request to speak to the motion. You have the floor. Thank you.

[00:33:30] Today in the gallery, we have the Franklin basketball team. If they could please rise. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate an inspiring story of perseverance, teamwork, community pride. It is my honor to recognize the outstanding achievement of the Franklin High School boys basketball team who captured the Virginia High School League Region 1B championship on February 28th, 2025. In a thrilling contest at Louisa County High School, the Franklin Broncos defeated Alta Vista High School 67-56, securing their place in the state championship final for

[00:34:07] only the second time in the school's history, and the first time in more than three decades. What makes this accomplishment even more remarkable is the journey that led them there. After beginning the season with a challenging 2-8 record, the Broncos refused to give up. Instead, they found their rhythm, their identity, and their confidence.

[00:34:24] Through determination and hard work, they searched to win 11 out of their 13 final games, finishing the season 17-13, and proving that resilience and the belief can transform adversity into achievement. Throughout their season, the Broncos demonstrated strong fundamentals, relentless defense, and a fast-paced offense that energized their fans and represented Franklin High School with tremendous pride.

[00:34:48] Their success reflects not only on their talent and dedication of the student-athletes, but also the leadership of their head coach, Robbie Cutchins, the guidance of their teachers and staff, and the steadfast support of family and their entire Franklin community. Mr. Speaker, it is fitting that we recognize these young men for their remarkable season and the example they set for their school and community.

[00:35:10] I accept the House join me in commending the Franklin High School Boys Basketball Team for winning the 2025 Virginia High School League 1B Championship and wishing them continued success in their years ahead. Mr. Speaker, I move the adoption of the resolution. The delegate from Suffolk, Delegate Clark, moves that the House adopt House Resolution 267 commending the Franklin High School Boys Basketball Team.

[00:35:30] All those in favor, say aye. All those opposed, no. The motion is agreed to. Congratulations.

[00:35:45] Delegate from Arlington, Delegate Lopez. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for an introduction. Delegate has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm pleased to welcome members of the Democratic Latino Organization of Virginia.

[00:36:03] I ask that they please stand. D-Love is a statewide branch of the Democratic Party of Virginia dedicated to activating and empowering Latino civic and political engagement across the Commonwealth. Today, they are at the Capitol to showcase the strength, diversity, and leadership of Virginia's Latino community.

[00:36:19] They also heard this morning from Governor Spanberger. And along with their day of advocacy meetings with lawmakers, D-Love is also hosting a legislative reception at 6 p.m. this evening at Chicanos Cocina Bar and Grill, which I hope everyone here can attend. Se puede.

[00:36:36] Se puede. Please join me in recognizing their work promoting civic participation and giving them a warm house welcome. Welcome. Welcome to the Capitol today.

[00:36:56] Delegate Cousins. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for an announcement. The delegate has the floor. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, the Legislative Food Drive benefiting Feed More will wrap up tomorrow morning. And I just want to thank everyone who has donated for your immense generosity.

[00:37:13] Delegate Fowler and I are still collecting monetary donations. If you want to get those in, you can do so by tomorrow morning. And we're also still collecting non-perishable food items, which you can bring to the collection boxes outside of our offices. Thank you. On the 11th floor. Thank you. So in House Rule 30, the general shall reflect that the following members are away on pressing personal business and are granted leave from today's session.

[00:37:41] Delegates Cohen and Williams. The clerk will announce the next order. Mr. Speaker, second portion of the morning hour is reserved for the announcement of member requests legislation to be moved and uncontested. It is, I am not aware of any such motions to go from uncontested to contested.

[00:37:56] Clerk will announce the next order. Third portion of the morning hour, a move reserved for the announcement of a member request for legislation to go by for the day. There is one in that category of Senate Bill's third regular on page five of the printed calendar. If you're looking that way, Senator Durant's SB 602 is by for the day at the request of Delegate Tran.

[00:38:14] Clerk will announce the next. Oh, I'm sorry. Sorry. Delegate from Alexander, Delegate Herring. Mr. Speaker, I move that the legislation as announced by the clerk go by for the day. Delegate from Alexander, Delegate Herring moves that the legislation as announced by the clerk go by for the day. As many favor the motion, we'll say aye. Those opposed, no. The legislation is bound for the day.

[00:38:31] The clerk will announce the next order. In the fourth and final portion of the morning, I'll reserve for member requests for points of personal privilege. Speaker Kyler requests that you use your request to speak button to get into the queue. The delegate from Spotsylvania, Delegate Scott. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for a point of personal privilege. The delegate has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

[00:38:46] Mr. Speaker, today I rise in recognition of Trisomy Awareness Month. A few years ago, we passed a resolution recognizing March as Trisomy Awareness Month here in the Commonwealth. And I ask every member of this body to pause and consider the extraordinary lives of those living with trisomy conditions, including families who love them and fight for them every single day.

[00:39:10] Most of us are aware of trisomy 21, Down syndrome. But fewer Virginians know about trisomy 13, also called Patel syndrome. Trisomy 13 occurs when a person is born with three copies of chromosome

13 rather than two. It affects approximately one in every 10,000 to 16,000 births.

[00:39:30] Children born with trisomy 13 often face profound medical challenges such as heart defects, brain and spinal cord abnormalities, breathing difficulties, and more. For years, the medical community offered families of these children little hope. Parents were told to expect the worst, to prepare for loss within hours or days, and tragically, many did.

[00:39:53] But something remarkable is happening, Mr. Speaker. Families who choose to pursue treatment, who fought for their children, are watching those children grow. Children diagnosed with trisomy 13 who receive full medical care are surviving.

[00:40:09] And they are not just surviving. They are smiling, knowing their families, and experiencing joy. This is not just a medical story. It's a story about medical dignity, human dignity, about who we decide is worth fighting for. Mr. Speaker, on the House floor today, we're also joined by my daughter, Brianna, and she is no stranger to this chamber, and she has trisomy 18.

[00:40:33] We were some of those parents that were told to expect the worst, and we had family come into town to celebrate her birth, and we were expecting to mourn her passing. But as loving parents, we didn't give a stone when our daughter needed bread.

[00:40:50] We gave her what she needed, and she's alive today, and she's thriving, as many other children with trisomy are today. So as a man of faith and as a legislator, I believe that every life has inherent worth. The child with extra chromosomes is no less valuable. The child is no less deserving of our protection, our resources, or our compassion.

[00:41:11] The child is not a statistic to be managed. They are our neighbors, our constituents, our friends, our families, and in the deepest sense, brothers and sisters. I want to recognize the tireless advocacy of organizations such as SOFT, Support Organization for Trisomy, and the countless families across Virginia and this nation who have refused to accept the lesser standard of care for their children.

[00:41:41] Their voices, their courage has changed medicine. Their love has changed lives. This month, I encourage my colleagues to learn more about trisomy conditions. Speak with families in your district who are living this reality. support efforts to improve palliative care options expand access to pediatric specialists and ensure that no parent in the Commonwealth is ever made to feel their child's life is not worth saving March is choice to be awareness month let us honor it not in just words from this floor but with policies and a culture that affirm what we believe that every person no matter how many

[00:42:19] chromosomes they carry has the full dignity of life and that life is worth protecting. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Delegate from Buckingham, Delegate Garrett.

[00:42:42] Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise from the point of personal privilege. Delegate has the floor. Happy birthday, Mr. Speaker. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, somebody told me at the beginning of this session that trying to do public safety with the Democrats was like going fishing without your piano. But I decided I would let it go, and I've been biting my tongue. I was frustrated, Mr. Speaker, when I saw that among the first acts of the new administration, both in the governor's mansion and the attorney general's office, was to gut ceasefire Virginia. Just a few statistics on that. In the communities where ceasefire Virginia was used. The murder rate, this is according to the Wilder School at VCU, so not a biased source. The murder rate dropped 64 percent. Violent crime went down 40 percent.

[00:43:19] The Wilder School said, and I quote, significant reductions in murder and violent crime were reported, and 76 percent of the citizens in these communities said they liked having a greater law enforcement presence in their communities. I've been biting my tongue, though, Mr. Speaker, as I watched efforts to eliminate more than 30 mandatory minimum sentencing provisions. Now, we're not just talking about weed and speed here. Let me give you a few examples. Possession of a firearm by a violent felon. Let's get rid of that mandatory minimum. How about third offense violation of a protective order with violence? Well, we don't want a mandatory minimum for that.

[00:43:50] How about rape of a child under 13? Got to get rid of that mandatory minimum. How about intentional malicious injury of a firefighter or EMS provider? Tried to get rid of that mandatory minimum. How about violent battery of a school employee? Tried to get rid of that mandatory minimum. And I've been biting my tongue. Somebody told me that working public safety with certain people in this chamber was like using my gas-powered leaf blower while wearing snow skis. And I've been biting my tongue. But then came Abdul Jalloh. You see, in Fairfax County, there's a pretty good argument that not only would Stephanie Minter still be alive if we enforced our border policies, but that people who have violated our border policies actually get treated better.

[00:44:30] Better. Taking information from the reporting of WJLA and Nick Minoc, I learned, and I quote, from their website, Steve will make charging and plea decisions that limit or avoid immigration consequences wherever possible. I could actually understand if it said wherever practicable or wherever appropriate, but no, it says wherever possible. So Stephanie Minter joins thousands who've died at people at the hands of people who shouldn't be here anyway if we enforced our laws. And I stood up and said, who do I blame? I blame politicians for not passing border laws they're willing to enforce. Screaming and demonizing ICE is like complaining to the cashier at

[00:45:08] McDonald's for the price of the Big Mac. They didn't do the laws that they enforced. They're just enforcing them. And yet no one has the intellectual honesty to just put in an open borders bill. Do it. If that's what you want, stop demonizing ICE. But Stephanie Minter now joins Jamil Shaw. She joins Sarah Root, Kate Styling, Joss Nagari, Lakin Riley, Indianapolis Colts linebacker Edwin Jackson, Rachel Morin. And I still continue to bite my tongue, Mr. Speaker,

[00:45:38] Until last night when I'm viewing X and I see an email from Major Jay Morrow, Fairfax County Police Department, written exactly, exactly 100 days to the day before Stephanie Minter was murdered.

[00:45:55] Amongst the quotes from the email, why is he out so soon? He outlines sexual assault, sexual violence against women. He outlines multiple stabbings, malicious wounding. And let me just tell you guys watching at home, malicious wounding is kind of like attempted murder, but we don't charge that in Virginia.

[00:46:10] we charge malicious wounding. He said, I want to share my concern that it's not if, but when he will maliciously wound or worse again. And a hundred days later to the day, a 41 year old mother was murdered. And it's not like we didn't have warning signs. Abdul Jalloh beat and stabbed Larry Gross. There are reports of him, quote, stomping a man's head into the ground, unquote.

[00:46:38] There are reports of other stabbings. Yes, with an S other stabbings over 150 interactions with Fairfax law enforcement, 150, 30-plus charges, most of which were just dropped because we got to seek, let me see, immigration consequences avoidance.

[00:46:55] And there's more. It's not just an isolated incident. Marvin Morales-Ortiz, there's an ICE detainer on him. Fairfax police let him go, refused to turn him over to ICE when he was held for murder. And a couple days later, wait for it, he murdered someone. Humberto Navarto Romero repeatedly dropped charges.

[00:47:16] There's an ICE detainer. They don't turn him over. And a couple of days later, he forcibly rapes a woman on a public trail where children play. I could keep going, but I kept biting my tongue until yesterday when 18 delegates who represent Fairfax, Arlington, and Alexandria voted to make it harder, not easier, harder to turn over not illegals, but violent criminal illegals to ICE.

[00:47:43] Gaslight much? They told us we were bad for not joining them in voting that way. Mr. Speaker, I'll conclude this way. Ronald Reagan once famously said the nine most terrifying words in the English language are, I'm from the government and I'm here to help. You guys in NOVA, the rest of us in ROVA, please stop.

[00:48:03] We don't want this kind of help. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The delegate from Montgomery County, Delegate Franklin. Mr. Speaker, I rise for a point of personal privilege.

[00:48:22] Delegate has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. During Women's History Month, we often talk about pioneers and famous names, women who broke barriers and made headlines. But today, I want to recognize a different kind of history being made every single day across the Commonwealth of Virginia.

[00:48:38] The history being made by mothers. Growing up in southwest Virginia, I saw resilience on display every day. Women were the backbone of our community, from supporting their families at home to being essential components of our local economy. They led with conviction that has left its mark on generations of sons and daughters in our region.

[00:48:57] They instilled in their children a belief in hard work, a sense of compassion on their neighbors, and a deep respect for families and communities, values that continue to define Southwest Virginia today. Some of these women worked more than one job to put food on the table. Other raised entire families on their own, and many did both.

[00:49:16] For far too long, their contributions have been discounted, dismissed, or simply taken for granted. Today, I rise to honor the mothers that continue to drive our commonwealth forward. sacrifices they have given have made Virginia sore. And while there are certainly many women who deserve recognition, none deserve that more than my own mom, Pat. Working at social services, my mom carried an immense responsibility, not only caring for my brother and I, but for the hundreds of kids that came under her care. She stands with families during their most difficult times. She gave a part of herself to the families in need every single day. And when she came home, She gave the rest to my brother and I.

[00:49:56] When I look around this chamber and I look at this body, and now in the governor's mansion, I see my own mother. I see that same spirit. I see compassionate, determined public servants who show up every single day to fight for hardworking families in our commonwealth.

[00:50:12] Day after day, they show up not because they believe in just a brighter future for just their kids, but for all the children across this commonwealth. And despite the demands that come with holding elected office, they return home to their own families, pack lunches, drive their kids to school and practice, help with homework, tuck their kids into bed, just like my own mom did.

[00:50:34] And during Women's History Month, we should remember that history is not only written in textbooks or on monuments. It's written every single day by the mothers of this commonwealth in their homes, in their workplace, and yes, in this very chamber. To the mothers of Virginia, we see you, we thank you, and we honor you today.

[00:50:52] Thank you all. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Delegate from Spotsylvania, Delegate Cole. Mr. Speaker, I rise for a point of personal privilege.

[00:51:13] Delegate has the floor. Mr. Speaker, in honor of today being your special day, a few of us wanted to pay homage to you by following the leader. With intention, we want to wish you a happy birthday, Mr. Speaker.

[00:51:35] All right, pipe down. Pipe down. All right, pipe down.

[00:51:52] Back to work. Delegate from Newport News, Delegate Simons. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. May we return to the first morning hour for purposes of an announcement? Of course. The delegate has the floor. Thank you. On behalf of Delegate Runyon and myself, I'd like to invite everyone to join the Career and Technical Education Caucus as we work to strengthen these opportunities for students and employers across the Commonwealth.

[00:52:17] We will be meeting today at 4 p.m. on the seventh floor, and we will have Secretary Fraser and Chancellor of Community Colleges, David DeRay, as our special guest. Thank you. Clerk will call the calendar. Calendar for today, Thursday, March 5th, day 51 of this 2026 regular session. We come to page two, first category. Senate bills on third reading, uncontested calendar block. There are four bills in this calendar section in this block, beginning with Senate Bill 138, which seeks to amend and reenact the Code of Virginia relating

[00:52:53] to the Department of Environmental Quality, Industrial Wastewater, Publicly Owned Treatment Works, PFAS Monitoring, Legislation Report Committee on Agriculture, Chesapeake and Natural Resources, subsequently reported by the Committee on Appropriations. Delicke from Fairfax, Delicke Cresick. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senate Bill 138 addresses contamination from PFAS, often called Forever Chemicals.

[00:53:12] The bill directs the Virginia Department of Environmental Quality to require monitoring of these Forever Chemicals from industrial wastewater sources that discharge into publicly owned treatment works. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill pass. Sergeant at Arms.

[00:53:30] Mr. Speaker, a message from the Senate. Senator from Eastern Fairfax, Senator Surveill. Good afternoon, Mr. Speaker. I have been directed by the President of the Senate to inform the House of Delegates that presented Rule 13 of H.J.R. 29, the Senate has agreed to suspend the special and continuing joint order relating to judicial elections one time until Tuesday, March the 10th, 2026, at the conclusion of the morning hour.

[00:53:55] Okay. See you. See you. Wouldn't want to be you. Mr. Clerk. Mr. Speaker, continuing with Senate Bill's third reading on Contested Counterblock, Baltimore, page 2, we come to Senate Bill 233, which would direct the Department of Fire Programs to convene a workgroup to evaluate the funding formula for the distribution of aid to localities through the Fire Programs Fund report. Legislation report committing on appropriations with amendment nature of substitute.

[00:54:25] Executive from Loudoun County, Delegate Reed. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I move the committee substitute. Shall the committee substitute be agreed to? All those in favor say aye. All those opposed, no. The committee substitute is agreed to. Delegate from Loudoun County, Delegate Reed. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As the substituted bill now requires the Department of Fire Programs to establish a work group to evaluate the funding formula for the distribution of aid to localities through the Fire Programs Fund.

[00:54:47] And that report is due on November 1, 2026. I move passage of the bill. Next up in the block, over on page 3, Senate Bill 302, which seeks to amend and reenact Section of the Code of Virginia relating to excise tax on peanuts. Sunset extended. Legislation originally reported the committee on finance, subsequently reported by the committee on appropriations with an amendment nature of substitute.

[00:55:07] Delegate from Fairfax, Delegate Cresick. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I move that the House adopt the appropriation substitute. Shall the committee substitute be agreed to? All those in favor say aye. Aye. All those opposed, no. The committee substitutes agree to the Delegate from Fairfax, Delegate Cresick. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senate Bill 302 extends the sunset date for Virginia's peanut excise tax.

[00:55:24] I encourage my colleagues, if you're nuts about this bill like I am, support the bill. Mr. Speaker, I move the bill to pass. Rounding out the block of third reading uncontested, top of page 4, Senate Bill 453, now before you six to amend and reenact Section Dakota, Virginia, relating to intentional discharge of untreated sewage, civil penalty. Legislation originally passed, reported from the Committee on Agricultural Chesapeake and Natural Resources, subsequently reported by the Committee on Appropriations.

[00:55:53] Delegate from Orleans, Delegate Lopez. Mr. Speaker, SB 453 from Senator Stewart establishes a maximum civil penalty of $50,000 per violation for any person found to have intentionally discharged unrelated sewage onto land or into waters of the Commonwealth.

[00:56:09] I move that we pass the bill. Shall the bills pass? Clerk will close the row. Ayes. Ayes 95, no zero.

[00:56:27] Ayes 95, no zero. The bills pass. Continuing with today's brief calendar, we come to a new category. Senate Bill's on third reading regular. Bottom of page four, first up, is Senate Bill 386, which is legislation to amend and reenact sections of the Code of Virginia relating to owners of sewage treatment works, land application, marketing, or distribution of sewage, flood, periflora, alcohol, and polyflora, alcohol substances, testing requirements, legislation reporting on agricultural, chesapeake, natural resources, amendment nature substitute, and the chairman of ACNR has floor amendments drawn to that substitute. Mr. Chairman, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to take that bill by for the day.

[00:57:08] Without a, the delegate from Arlington, that Lopez moves that we take SB 386 by for the day. All those in favor, say aye, all those opposed, no, SB 386 is by for the day. Similarly, Senate Bill 602 is by for the day. So first bill in this new category, third reading regular is now Senate Bill 764, which is legislation to amend and reenact sections of the code of Virginia relating to deferred disposition of criminal cases, license, suspension, driving under the influence.

[00:57:37] Legislation report committee, of course, justice with amendments. Delegate from Fairfax, Delegate Simon. And, Mr. Speaker, I think there are going to be some floor amendments to this bill, but I'd like that this bill go by for the day so we get a chance to look at those floor amendments. Delegate from Fairfax. Delegate Simon moves that SB 764 go by for the day. All those in favor say aye. Aye.

[00:57:52] All those opposed, no. The bill goes by for the day. Over on page six, the next first bill in this new category, perhaps, is Senate Bill 530, which is legislation to amend and reenact three sections of the Code of Virginia relating to State and Local Government Conflicts of Interest Act, Electronic Disclosure by Local Government Officers and Employees.

[00:58:13] Legislation reported to the Committee on General Laws with amendment nature of substitute and then subsequently reported by the Committee on Appropriations. Delegate from Chesapeake, Delegate Hayes. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I move that the House adopt the committee substitute. Shall the committee substitute be agreed to? All those in favor say aye. All those opposed, no. The committee substitute is agreed to the Delegate from Chesapeake, Delegate Hayes.

[00:58:30] Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senate Bill 530 requires local government officers and employees to file annual disclosure statements electronically with the Virginia Conflict of Interest and Ethics Advisory Council beginning January 1st, 2027, with later dates for smaller localities.

[00:58:46] Mr. Speaker, I move that we pass the bill. Shall the bill pass? Close the roll. Ayes 82, noes 15.

[00:59:04] Ayes 82, noes 15. The bill passes. Over on page 7, we come to Senate Bill 620. Legislation amended and reenact various sections of the Code of Virginia, repeal several others, all relating to the Virginia Alcoholic Beverage Control Authority permitting of retail tobacco product retailers purchase, possession, and sale of retail tobacco products. Penalties report. Legislation originally reported to the Committee on General Laws with a substitute. The substitute reported by the Committee on Appropriations.

[00:59:30] Delegate from Arlington, Delegate Hope. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I move the Committee on General Laws substitute. Shall the Committee substitute be agreed to? All those in favor say aye. Aye. All those opposed, no. The Committee substitute is agreed to. Delegate from Arlington, Delegate Hope. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Members of the body, this bill is now identical to my House Bill 308. 8, which passed out of here. This relates to the enforcement of underage tobacco and vape sales, also sets up a licensing and permitting structure. I move passage of the bill.

[00:59:54] Shall the bill pass? Close the roll. Ayes 96, ayes 95, noes 3. Ayes 95, noes 3, the bill passes.

[01:00:11] Over on page 8, last bill in this category is Senate Bill 645. SB 645, Section of the Code of Virginia Related to Air Pollution Control Board Regulations, Small Renewable Energy Projects, Anaerobic Digestion Technology Report.

[01:00:30] Legislation Report Committee on Agriculture, Chesapeakean Natural Resources with a substitute, then subsequent report on Appropriations with a different substitute. Delegate from Fairfax, Delegate Kreeseck. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First, I'm going to move that the House adopt the Agriculture, Chesapeakean Natural Resources substitute and vote no. Shall the committee substitute be agreed to?

[01:00:46] All those in favor say aye. All those opposed, no. No. Committee substitute is rejected. The delegate from Fairfax, Delegate Creasy. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Now I move that the House adopt the appropriation substitute. Shall the committee substitute be agreed to? All those in favor say aye. Aye. All those opposed, no. The committee substitute is agreed to. The delegate from Fairfax, Delegate Creasy.

[01:01:03] Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senate Bill 645 addresses state air pollution regulations affecting waste, energy, and renewable energy facilities. The bill expands the definition of small renewable energy project to include additional facilities that generate electricity from waste or biomass. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill pass.

[01:01:20] Shall the bill pass? Clerk will close the roll. Ayes 93, noes 5. Ayes 93, noes 5. The bill passes.

[01:01:35] Continuing with today's calendar, page 8, new category, House bills on third reading uncontested calendar. Third reading uncontested of these two House bills in the block. The bills in the block are House Bill 1530 as well as House Bill 1531. Shall the bills pass?

[01:01:57] Clerk will close the roll. Ayes 96, noes 2. Ayes 96, noes 2. people don't know what uncontested means uh the bill's passed happy birthday um new category house bills uh with senate amendments i believe there's six or seven in this uh category beginning page nine uh first up is um delegate helmers house bill 21 which relates to firearm industry members standards of responsible conduct civil liability originally passed the house

[01:02:34] subsequently passed senate with substitute and uh the senate subjects before you From Fairfax, Delegate Helmer. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 21, as amended by the Senate, is the industry standards for firearms bill. If you think you ought to be able to sue firearm manufacturers and dealers for irresponsible behavior, the Senate amendments still do that.

[01:02:56] The only difference between the Senate amendments that came over and the House bill is it's added some language from the Office of the Attorney General that clarifies that they can do civil investigations in line with other similar provisions of the code. I move adoption of the Senate amendments, Mr. Speaker. The Doug from Chesapeake, Doug Lefkowitz.

[01:03:12] Thank you, Mr. Speaker, speaking to the Senate Substitute. The Doug has the floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think we all agree in holding irresponsible people accountable, but this bill violates the Protection of Lawful Commerce and Arms Act. It did so when it left this chamber, and the Senate Substitute does nothing to fix that.

[01:03:29] But the problem is simple. The bill does not give anyone in the firearms industry any way to know what conduct is legal and which conduct is not. Instead, it creates a vague requirement and then threatens lawsuits if a criminal, an emphasized criminal, misuses a firearm somewhere down the line.

[01:03:47] That is exactly what Congress prohibited when it passed the Protection of Lawful Commerce and Arms Act. Supporters often point to New York's version of this law to claim it proves this will survive a court challenge. It will not. The bill was written broadly enough that Virginia could impose liability on manufacturers and distributors located outside of the state.

[01:04:10] Federal courts have been very clear about this. States do not get to regulate interstate commerce from their own capital. Curbing gun violence is a bipartisan issue. We can agree on that. But passing legislation that will be struck down and cost taxpayers tens if not millions of dollars in litigation is not a constructive solution.

[01:04:32] I urge you no vote on this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Shall the Senate substitute be adopted? Kirk will close the row.

[01:04:49] Ayes, 62, noes, 36. Ayes, 62, noes, 36. The Senate substitute is adopted. House bill 296 now before you as it relates to a state correctional facilities visitation policies report legislation originally passed the House has passed that with amendments the Senate amendments to HB 296 before you.

[01:05:08] Thank you Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, HB 296 reforms DOC's visitation policies. The Senate amendments update the members of the work group as well as adds a date for the final report. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House agree to the Senate amendments. the Senate amendment be adopted. Close the roll. Ayes 71, noes 27. Ayes 71, noes 27. The Senate amendment is adopted. Over on page 11, we come next to House Bill 320, which relates to live

[01:05:46] streaming while driving. Prohibited. Penalty. Legislation originally passed the House, subsequently passed the Senate with amendments. The Senate amendments are before you. The delegate from Fredericksburg, Delegate Cole. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am not live today. The two amendments from the Senate removes viewing from the code because viewing is already, viewing a video is already illegal, according to 46.2-1077. And the Second Amendment tightens the language of social media platform to clarify that it does not include any application service or website with the primary function of providing audio or video conferencing because the senators are

[01:06:21] worried about their Zoom calls. So this bill does not affect Zoom calls. I ask that we accept the Senate amendments. Shall the Senate amendment be adopted? So we'll close the roll. Ayes 91, no 6, abstentions 1. Ayes 91, no 6, abstentions 1. Continuing with House Bill Senate amendments, [01:06:55] we come next to House Bill 431. Bill passes, by the way. Sorry. House Bill 431, related to Alzheimer's Disease Related Disorders Commission, extension of an expiration date. Legislation originally passed the House, of course. Subject passed that with substitute. The Senate substitutes Thank you Mr. Speaker.

[01:07:15] The Senate substitute now conforms my HB 431 to Senate Bill 682. It does exactly what the clerk says, simply extends the sunset date of Virginia's Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders Commission. The Senate substitute was simply stylistic changes of language and with that I would move that the House agree to the Senate substitute.

[01:07:34] Shall the Senate substitute be adopted? Clerk will close the roll. Ayes 97, noes 1. Ayes 97, noes 1. Senate substitute is adopted. House Bill 649 relates to removal of certain signs and advertisements placed within the limits of highway, agreements with local governing bodies and planning district 23 requirements. Legislature passed the House, which is now before you. House Bill 649 is narrow in scope and [01:08:10] prevents localities within planning district 23 with a population between 245,000 and 350,000 and that also has a tax increment financing district from using volunteers to remove signs or advertisements. The Senate amendments changed the population range, and I move that the House accept the Senate amendments. Shall the Senate substitute be adopted? Clerk will close the roll.

[01:08:48] Ayes 90, nos 7. Ayes 90, nos 7. The Senate substitute is adopted. Over on page 12 of the printed calendar, House bills of Senate amendments become the House Bill 860, which would direct the State Board of Local and Regional Jails to convene a workgroup to review standards and regulations for pregnant and postpartum incarcerated persons in local and regional correctional facilities report.

[01:09:10] Legislation originally passed the House. Passed it with a substitute, which is before you. Then from Richmond City, Delegate Cousins. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. HB 860 directs the Board of Local and Regional Jails to develop lactation policies for pregnant and postpartum incarcerated Virginians. The Senate substitute removes the required workgroup that was included in the original bill.

[01:09:30] to develop these policies. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House agree to the Senate substitute. Shall the Senate substitute be adopted? Clerk will close the roll. Ayes 98, noes 0. Ayes 98, noes 0. The Senate substitute is adopted. House Bill 894 now before you. This legislation relates to private elementary and secondary schools student codes of conduct, policies relating to bullying and cyber bullying requirements. The legislation originally passed the House, passed that with the substitute which is before you. Delegate from Fairfax, Delegate Sullivan.

[01:10:07] Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As the clerk has said and well-described, HB 894 ensures that private elementary and secondary schools have policies relating to bullying and cyberbullying. We have a couple details to work out, so I move the Senate substitute and ask that the body reject the substitute. Shall the Senate substitute be agreed to? Clerk will close the roll. Ayes zero, nos 98.

[01:10:41] Ayes zero, nos 98. The Senate substitute is rejected. Next up, new category, House joint resolution, excuse me, with Senate amendment. H.J.'s with Senate amendment. There is one, middle of page 12. House joint resolution 18 now before you relates to a portrait of the Honorable Yvonne Vaughn Miller.

[01:11:00] This legislation originally passed the House. It's obviously passed Senate with a substitute. That Senate substitutes now before you. Delegate from Hiraico County, Delegate McQuinn. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, the Senate substitute authorizes that the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Commission be in consultation with the Clerk of the Senate of Virginia and the House of Delegates to continue the contract, have painted, and have appropriate frame and place in the Capitol portrait of the Honorable Yvonne Miller commemorating her services in the General Assembly.

[01:11:31] The original bill had only the House of Delegates, and so I move that the House agree to the Senate Amendment. Shall the Senate Amendment be agreed to? Okay.

[01:11:47] Clerk will close the row. Ayes, 98, noes, 0. Ayes, 98, noes, 0. The Senate substitute is adopted. Mr. Speaker, members of the House, commending resolutions lay on the Speaker's table. Both of the two that are listed there have been dispensed with. So there is the last piece of business.

[01:12:02] We have a conference report from Delegate Helmer's legislation. I believe he was the lead conferee. It's on page 17 if you're following along that way. Conference report is received for Senate bills in conference for Senate Bill 27.

[01:12:21] Senate Bill 27, which relates to firearm industry members, standards of responsible conduct, civil liability. The conference report is available to the members here via the IHOD and to the public via the legislative information system. So the conference report for SB 27 is before you.

[01:12:37] The delegate from Fairfax, Delegate Hill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senate Bill 27, as in the conference report, is exactly the same as House Bill 21, which we just passed on industry standards for firearms. I hope we will pass the bill.

[01:12:54] Shall the conference report be agreed to?

[01:13:06] Clerk will close the roll. Ayes, 62, noes, 36. Ayes, 62, noes, 36. The conference report is agreed to. Mr. Speaker, that completes all the business that I'm aware of before us today. Per House Rule 51, the House has returned to the morning hour.

[01:13:22] Does the clerk have any additional announcements on communications? Yes, communication from the Senate. The Senate has insisted on its amendments and requests committees of conference on the following legislation. House Bills 84, 476, 625, and 1487.

[01:13:38] Delegate from Alexander, Delegate Herring. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House accede to the request of the Senate for committees of conference on the previously reported legislation. Delegate from Alexander, Delegate Herring moves that the House accede to the Senate's request for committees of conference on the previously announced legislation.

[01:13:54] As many in favor, the motion will say aye. Those opposed, no. The motion is agreed to. Another communication from the Senate. The Senate has rejected the House amendments to the following Senate legislation, Senate Bills 490, 553, and 640. Delegate Alexander, Delegate Herring.

[01:14:10] Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insists on its amendments and requests committees of conference on the previously reported legislation. Delegate Alexander, Delegate Herring moves that the House insists and requests committees of conference on the previously announced legislation. All those in favor of the motion will say aye.

[01:14:28] All those opposed, no. The motion is agreed to. Mr. Speaker, members of the House, that's all the business I have there. Meeting scheduled for today, day 51, as we begin winding down. The Committee on Labor and Commerce will be meeting a half hour after adjournment.

[01:14:45] Half hour after adjournment of the House, they'll be down in the House Committee Room A on the lower level. That's a half hour after adjournment, approximately 1.30 or soon thereafter. That is the only legislative committee meeting that I'm aware of. Everything else has been canceled, so I won't read that.

[01:15:01] And then, as mentioned previously, the Career and Technical Education Caucus will be meeting at 4 o'clock up on the 7th floor North Meeting Room over in the General Assembly Building. Looking ahead to tomorrow, Friday, March 6th, the first meeting will be the Committee on Rules.

[01:15:20] House Rules will be meeting at 8 o'clock, and House Committee Room B on the second floor will take up their docket. At 8.15, the Committee on Public Safety will be meeting. They'll be down in the lower level, House Room A. That meeting's at 8.15, and then at 9 o'clock, Committee on County, Cities, and Towns is going to be meeting up, and they'll be on House Committee Room B, which is next door, or maybe not.

[01:15:46] Mr. Speaker, just a quick announcement. The delegate from Fairfax, Delegate Helmer. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We will start County, Cities, and Towns 10 minutes after public safety concludes tomorrow. All right, so rules is at 8, public safety is at 8:15, and then CC&T will meet 10 minutes after the adjournment of the Committee on Public Safety, and their public safety is in A, and county, cities, and towns will be in B. And then going in early tomorrow, therefore, the two caucuses will be meeting prior as usual, the Democratic caucus will be meeting at 9:15, Republicans will be meeting at 9:30, Democrats in House Room 1, Republicans in

[01:16:25] House Room 2. Simply also, one quick thing to remind members, all joint, all the joint HJs, joint commending and memorial resolutions, need to be filed here at the clerk's desk, clerk's office, by 5 on Monday. And then we have until next Thursday for House resolution, House-only HRs. So just bear that in mind as you begin, because I know they're very popular as you do that. That's all the announcements I have, sir.

[01:16:52] Delegate from Hanover, Delegate Fowler. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ms. Speaker, I just want to follow up with the folks who we've got a couple of sign-up sheets for the sign-up to be a co-patron on Desert Shield and Desert Storm.

[01:17:10] And this is a very rushed item, and I'd like to get those petitions, or not really a petition, but those sheets back this afternoon. Thank you. Delegate from Alexander, Delegate Herring. Mr. Speaker, I move that when the House adjourned today, they adjourn to reconvene tomorrow at 10 a.m.

[01:17:30] Delegate from Alexander, Delegate Heron moves that when the House adjourns today, they adjourn to reconvene tomorrow at 10 a.m. As many in favor, the motion will say aye. Aye. All those opposed, no. The motion is agreed to the Delegate from Alexander, Delegate Heron. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn. Delegate from Alexander, Delegate Heron moves that the House do now adjourn.

[01:17:46] As many in favor, the motion will say aye. Those opposed, no. The motion is agreed to the House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 10 a.m.
