

ABSENCE WITHOUT APPROVED LEAVE

An employee who is absent without approved leave is subject to termination or other disciplinary action. In addition, the salary of such employee will be deducted for the amount of time of unapproved leave.

An employee who does not report to work without notifying his or her supervisor will be deemed to have voluntarily resigned his or her position after three (3) consecutive days, unless the employee can provide verifiable evidence of extenuating circumstances, as determined by the Superintendent or designee.
