

PETITION FOR COURT REVIEW

Any parent, custodian, or legal guardian of a student attending Loudoun County Public Schools who is aggrieved by an action of the School Board may, within thirty days after such action, petition the Loudoun County Circuit Court to review the action of the School Board. The action of the School Board shall be sustained unless the School Board exceeded its authority, acted arbitrarily or capriciously, or abused its discretion.

Notice of this provision shall be included in the LCPS Student Rights and Responsibilities Handbook for Families and Student Code of Conduct ("SR&R").
