

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE DIVISION SUPERINTENDENT

The Division Superintendent is a supervising official who exercises powers involving a considerable degree of judgment and discretion.

A. School Board Liaison. The Division Superintendent is charged with performing duties prescribed by law, by the School Board and by the State Board of Education and is charged with seeing that the actions and intentions of the School Board are carried out. The Division Superintendent must carry out these policies of the School Board and is authorized to supplement them with regulations where necessary. The Division Superintendent or, in his/her absence or inability to attend, a person designated by him/her and approved by the School Board, shall be present at all meetings of the School Board except that, on affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the School Board, attendance of the Division Superintendent or his/her designee may be dispensed with at a special meeting of the School Board. If matters pertaining to the Division Superintendent personally are under discussion at any such meeting, he/she shall remain subject to the call of the School Board. The other administrators and supervisors carry out the duties assigned by the Division Superintendent. The Division Superintendent must regularly report to the School Board about the status of programs, personnel and operations of the school division, recommend actions to the School Board, facilitate communication between the School Board and employees, and assist the chair in developing agenda of meetings of the school board. The Division Superintendent shall have the authority to delegate to other school personnel the exercise of any powers and the discharge of any duties imposed on the Superintendent consistent with applicable law, policy, bylaw, regulation, and other governing documents of the School Board.

B. Professional Development. The Division Superintendent shall participate annually in high quality professional development activities at the local, state, or national levels, including the Standards of Quality, Board of Education regulations, and the Guidelines for Uniform Performance Standards and Evaluation Criteria for Teachers, Principals, and Superintendents.

C. Educational Leader. As the educational leader of Loudoun County Public Schools, the Division Superintendent:

1. Supervises the principals and assistant superintendents;
2. Oversees planning and evaluation of curriculum and instruction;
3. Develops for approval by the school board procedures for adopting textbooks and other instructional materials;
4. Visits schools on a regular basis, and
5. Maintains a current knowledge of developments in curriculum and instruction.

D. Chief Executive Officer. The Division Superintendent enforces school laws and regulations, including by:

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE DIVISION SUPERINTENDENT

1. Observing directions and regulations prescribed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction or Board of Education;
2. Reporting information to the Superintendent of Public Instruction as required;
3. Promptly distributing all reports, forms, laws and regulations received from the Superintendent of Public Instruction;
4. Enforcing school laws, regulations and decisions of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and of the Board of Education; and
5. Developing and maintaining procedures, guidelines and regulations to implement School Board policy. If board action is required by law or the board has specifically asked that certain types of regulations be given prior board approval, these procedures, regulations and guidelines are presented to the School Board for approval and, when approved, placed in the School Board policy manual. The administrative procedures, guidelines and regulations are communicated to the staff and made available for their information.

E. Personnel Management. The Division Superintendent oversees staff personnel management, including by:

1. Organizing recruitment of personnel;
2. Reassigning personnel in accordance with school board policy;
3. Administering personnel policies and programs;
4. Upon request of the School Board, surveying the school division at least annually to identify critical shortages of teachers and administrative personnel by subject matter and school bus drivers and reporting such critical shortages to the School Board, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the Virginia Retirement System;
5. Supervising evaluation of personnel; and
6. Providing for maintenance of up-to-date job descriptions for all personnel.

F. Facilities Management. The Division Superintendent oversees facility management, including by:

1. Preparing long- and short-range plans for facilities and sites;
2. Providing for the maintenance of school property and safety of personnel and property;

3. Inspecting, or providing for the inspection of, school property on a regular basis;
4. Overseeing the utilization of school property;
5. Monitoring any construction, renovation and demolition of school facilities;
6. Representing the school division before local or state agencies which control building requirements or provide financing for buildings, and
7. Closing public school buildings which appear to be unfit for occupancy.

G. Financial Management. The Division Superintendent oversees financial management by:

1. Preparing the budget for School Board approval;
2. Ensuring that expenditures are within the limits approved by the School Board;
3. Reporting to the School Board on the financial condition of the School Division;
4. Establishing procedures for procurement of equipment and supplies; and
5. Ensuring that an accurate record of all receipts and disbursements of school funds is kept.

H. Community Relations. The Division Superintendent directs community relations activities, including by:

1. Articulating educational programs and needs to the community;
2. Responding to concerns expressed in the community;
3. Maintaining contact with the news media;
4. Participating in community affairs; and
5. Involving the community in planning and problem-solving for the school division.

2. Providing for an adequate student record system;
3. Implementing policies and programs relating to behavior and discipline of students;
4. Maintaining programs for the health and safety of pupils; and
5. Facilitating communication between the School Division and community agencies.

J. Administration Action in Policy Absence. In cases where emergency action must be taken by the school division and the School Board has provided no guidelines for administrative action, the Division Superintendent has the power to act, but the Division Superintendent must attempt to convene an emergency meeting of the School Board prior to taking such action when the Division Superintendent determines that it is reasonable to do so. The Division Superintendent's decisions are subject to review by the School Board at its next regular meeting. It is the duty of the Division Superintendent to inform the School Board promptly of such action and of the need for policy.
