

FAMILY LIFE EDUCATION (FLE)

The Loudoun County School Board provides Family Life Education (FLE) based on the Standards of Learning (SOL) and curriculum guidelines developed by the Board of Education. The School Board reviews its family life education curriculum at least once every seven years, evaluates whether the curriculum reflects contemporary community standards, and revises the curriculum if necessary.

A. Right of Parental Review

1. A parent or guardian has the right to review the family life curricula, including all supplemental materials used in the program. A complete copy of all printed materials not subject to copyright protection and a description of all audio-visual materials is made available through any available parental portal and kept in the school library or office and made available for review to any parent or guardian during school office hours before and during the school year. The audio-visual materials are made available to parents for in-person review, upon request, on the same basis as printed materials are made available.

2. The LCPS staff develops and distributes to the parents or guardians of students participating in the FLE program and posts for public viewing on the Division's website a summary designed to assist them in understanding the program implemented in LCPS and designed to encourage parental guidance and involvement in the instruction of the students. Such information reflects the curricula of the program as taught in the classroom. The following statement is included within the summary: "Parents and guardians have the right to review the family life education program offered by their school division, including written and audio-visual educational materials used in the program. Parents and guardians also have the right to excuse their child from all or part of family life education instruction." This language is intended to authorize parents/guardians to opt their student out of some or all of the Family Life Education program offered by Loudoun County Public Schools.
