

ADULT EDUCATION

The Adult Education Program provides lifelong educational opportunities and support services to all adults, 18 years and older, who are not enrolled in a regular public school program. The Adult Education Program addresses the unique and evolving needs of individuals and communities by providing adults with the knowledge and skills necessary to participate effectively as productive citizens, workers, and family members.

A. Young Adult English Learners Program (YAE). The Young Adult English Learners (YAE) Program services incoming English Learner adult students ages 18-21 (identified as eligible for English Language services) who will not meet graduation requirements by the age of 21 but who desire an English Language development program that supports transition to the Adult High School or to the General Educational Development (GED) Preparatory Program. Tuition is free up to the age of 21.

B. Adult Basic Education (ABE). The Adult Basic Education (ABE) Program provides basic skills instruction for adult students whose math and reading skills have been assessed below the GED® readiness level. The primary objective is to help adult students who are working below the 9th grade level to improve their skills in reading, writing, mathematics, language acquisition, and other basic skills and transition to the GED® Program. An assessment is given at registration to determine proper class placement. A fee is charged for tuition and assessment.

C. General Educational Development (GED)® Preparation. The GED® Program provides classes designed to prepare adult students for the GED® high school equivalency exam. The preparatory classes prepare adult students for the four subject area tests of the GED®: Reasoning through Language Arts, Mathematical Reasoning, Science, and Social Science. An assessment is given at registration to determine proper class placement. A fee is charged for tuition and assessment.

D. English Learners (EL). The English Learners (EL) Program provides classes from beginner literacy levels to highly advanced levels for adult, non-native English speakers. The classes are designed to help adult students develop and improve speaking, listening, reading, writing, and grammar skills to communicate effectively in English and be successful in the workplace and postsecondary education and training. An assessment is given at registration to determine proper class placement. A fee is charged for tuition and assessment.

E. Adult High School (AHS). The Adult High School (AHS) Program provides an opportunity to adult students who are no longer enrolled in public education to complete the required coursework (6 credits or less) to earn a high school diploma.

ADULT EDUCATION

Upon completing the state requirements, the student receives a Standard High School Diploma. A fee is charged for tuition.

F. General Adult Education (GAE). The General Adult Education (GAE) Program offers enrichment classes for adults, 18 years and older, who are looking to broaden their horizons and learn a new hobby or skill. A fee is charged for tuition.
